

Haywood.

This traditional, polished steel register grate combines simplicity with sophisticated Adam design. Glossop's Stove Makers' Assistant, published in 1771, illustrates a number of these newly fashionable late 18th Century register grates. Similar grates made by the Carron ironworks in Scotland and the Coalbrookdale foundry in Shropshire can be found among the drawings of Robert Adam.

Dimensions

Height 40 in (101.6cm) Width 40 in (101.6cm)

Depth 16 1/8 in (41cm)

Price

Steel

£2,500 (+VAT)