

The Scallop Bench.

The solid, dished seat over conforming seat rails on square tapered legs united by an H form stretcher.

Hall seat furniture with no upholstery or fabric coverings were primarily used by servants waiting for their employer's orders. Tennant farmers and those from the estate, wearing out door clothes, would be expected to wait until they were summoned.

Dimensions

Height 20³/₄in (53cm) Width 21in (53.7cm)

Depth 15¹/₂in (38.6cm)

Price

£ 1,450 (+VAT)