

18th Century Antique

A white marble, neoclassical English chimneypiece, circa 1780, with plain shelf, the frieze with eleven anthemion sprays in circular medallions flanked by protruding blocks carved with figures. The pilaster jambs with inset panels carved with graduating, inverted flower heads falling from tied ribbon bows.

Dimensions

Height 52½in (133.3cm) width 72½in (184.1cm)

Internal height 38¾in (98.4cm) width 45in (114.3cm)

Footblock to footblock 68in (172.7cm)

Reference

G184