

The Heathcote.

The design for this table is based on etchings by the architect Charles Heathcote Tatham (1772 – 1842) of an ancient Roman example in The Vatican. The Medicea Breccia marble top is supported by three lion's head monopodia decorated with acanthus leaves and united by an arched and paneled 'stretcher' or support.

Dimensions

Height 37¹/₄ in (94.5cm) Width 39in (99cm)

Material

White statuary marble with breche top.

Price

£6,500 (+VAT)