

18th Century Antique

A fine and architectural carved pine chimneypiece. A broken pediment with carved acanthus leaves and dentils rests on a shelf forming an architectural cornice above a fluted frieze. The projecting end blocks are embellished with floral paterae and supported by elegantly scrolling ionic capitals above fluted columns on the jambs.

Dimensions

Height 84 $\frac{3}{4}$ in (201.5cm) width 80 $\frac{1}{2}$ in (204.6cm)

Internal height 52 $\frac{1}{2}$ in (133.5cm) width 59 $\frac{1}{2}$ in (151.6cm)

Footblock to footblock 75 $\frac{3}{8}$ in (191.5cm)

Reference

G213