

18th Century Antique

A Georgian chimneypiece in Siena and statuary marble with breakfront shelf, Siena frieze with plain white tablet and ogee corbel brackets surmounting the jambs.

Ex-collection, Admiral Beatty (1871-1936), First Sea Lord and Commander in Chief of the British Grand Fleet, of Dogger Bank and Jutland battles fame. Removed from his London Mansion in Regents Park. Believed to have been installed in Lady Beatty's drawing room in their London home the 1920's.

Bonhams, The Knightsbridge Sale, London, 9 October 2007, Lot 142 (miscatalogued as 19th century).

Dimensions

Height 60in (152.2cm) width 74¾in (190cm)

Internal height 46in (116.8cm) width 43½in (110cm)

Footblock to footblock 66in (167.8cm)

Reference

G233