

19th Century Antique

A statuary marble chimneypiece of typical early 19th century, English Regency design. Circa 1815. The rectangular shelf with reeded edge above the frieze, which is centred with an oblong tablet carved with an oval medallion of a flower head, flanked by convex reeded panels, the jambs similarly decorated and capped with acanthus decorated brackets. The whole mounted on blockings.

Dimensions

Height 50 $\frac{3}{4}$ in (129cm) width 68 $\frac{1}{2}$ in (174cm)

Internal height 41in (104cm) width 41in (104cm)

Footblock to footblock 58 $\frac{5}{8}$ in (149cm)

Shelf depth 9 $\frac{7}{8}$ in (25cm)

Reference

N173